

case study

An information age nerve-centre

Client / Location

Valleys Information, Technology and Communication Centre (ViTCC), Blaenau Gwent County Borough Council, Tredegar

Brief

Contracted to work alongside the principal architect in developing a Cyber Café; ICT Software Training Areas; ICT Hardware Training Areas; and Video & Conference facilities to host meetings and seminars for a variety of business and community activities.

The first of its kind for Wales, the ViTCC provides electronic opportunities and innovation for business, education and specialised training to increase ICT skills at professional and personal levels across a wide range of communities.

Size

1,100 sq m

Services

Solution for the project included:

- Space planning
- Detailed design & production information
- Furniture provision
- Bespoke product design, selection & installation
- Project management service

Cost

budget £92,000

Duration

installation phased over a 12 month period

